

Results and Consequences of not being under the control of the Holy Spirit

There were two young girls in the wilderness

Both their lives a great big mess

They decided one day to pack up and go

Hoping to find a place to grow

Now both these girls had a baby heart

That knew they needed a brand new start

Yet setting out they did not know

The trials they would undergo

Around the first corner

The Lord tried to warn her

Of all the enemies they'd face

And all of His sufficient grace

Yet His voice they did not heed

Allowing satan to mislead

Now laying weak they began to speak

In one accord to the Lord

Please help us in our time of need

Send your word and plant the seed

We know it is the guarantee

That we can both be set free

And faithfully He stooped down low

And to both He started to show

The Holy Spirit is your guarantee

The guarantee to keep you free

Now if you love Me ask Me please

And to the Spirit bend your knees

So He can plant you like a tree

And through each word He'll set you free

Now Steadfast she got on her knees

And accepted it with ease

But Faltering began to tease

With His plea she disagrees
So one went on to this new life
The other went back to her life of strife
Steadfast grew strong in Spirit
Realizing she was now coherent
Her thought life no longer jumbled
Her words no longer fumbled
She was on a narrow path
No longer on a path of wrath
And as the world offered her pleasure
She only longed for more of His treasure
No person place or thing
Would she exchange for her wedding ring
She knew He was a faithful Father
And strong enough through what He taught her
To help her lay aside all unforgiveness
in the light of His forgiveness
So when a thought begins to creep
With His word on it she'll leap
Choosing to no longer remember
And allowing Him to steady her
Then it happened when she saw
Faltering weighed down in satans claw
She ran to meet her in the dirt
And from off her back she offered her shirt
Once again it was refused
How much longer will she stay abused?
How much longer will she stay confused?
Faltering had chose her path
She did not want to take a bath
Nor bend her knee at His plea
So in the mire she still lays
Miserable in her own ways

And when the day last day comes
And heaven plays it mighty drums
Steadfast will take her seat
At the saviors feet
Faltering on the other hand
Will be found in a different land
The lake of fire is where she'll retire
Each one will have to make their choice
So if this morning you hear His voice
Todays the day so don't delay
In His presence you may stay
If from this day you will obey
He promises you the guarantee
The guarantee to keep you free
Open your heart accept the start
Todays the day what do you say?
